Itinerary

DAY 1: Meet and greet at the International Airport by one of our guides. Transfer to your hotel. In the afternoon private city tour. Buenos Aires is a charming city with a strong influence of most of the main European cities.

DAY 2 to 4: During the stay in Buenos Aires, you will enjoy mornings playing great golf in 3 top ranked courses and afternoons discovering the city, tasting best wines, or one of our Tango Shows

Olivos: It's considered the best golf course in Argentina and ranked 71st on the Golf Digest's "best golf courses outside US.". This course hosted the Amateur Golf World Cup on 2010.

Jockey Club: Probably the most prestigious Golf Club in Argentina. Founded in 1880 Jockey club has 36 holes created by augusta national designer, Allister Mackenzie. The Jockey Club also proved its hardness with some of the best golfers in history such as Arnold Palmer, Sam Snead, Tom Watson, Gary Player, Craig Stadler, Byron Nelson, Sergio Garcia and many others.

Pilar: This course hosted the 2006 and 2011 Argentine Masters and the Latinamerican Amateur Championship, an event sponsored by the The Masters Tournament, The R&A and the United States Golf Association.

DAY 5: Breakfast and transfer to the domestic airport. Flight to Bariloche. Arrival at the Hotel. Undoubtedly PATAGONIA suggests the most amazing latitudes of the globe.

DAY 6-7: In this paradise surrounded by mountains and lakes you will have 2 rounds of golf.

Llao Llao GC: With a superb location, surrounded by deep-blue lakes, snow-covered mountains and natural forests, the golf course has asymmetric fairways, imposing green and bunkers perfectly integrated to the environment. Llao-llao design cross quite a few times the "Nahuel Huapi Lake" and the 18th hole is one of the two holes in Argentina that are among the best 500 hundred in the world.

Arellauquen Golf: This amazing 18-hole course 6,693-yard and Par-72 golf course is crossed by the Longochinoco Creek, which makes up a central valley in the shape of a horse-shoe opening towards the lake.

DAY 8: Breakfast and departure by land to the north Patagonia area. Making the famous 7 lakes one of the most famous touristic circuits in the Argentinian Patagonia, located in the area known as the "Lake District".

DAY 9-10: During the stay you will play one of the best latinamerican courses:

The Chapelco Golf: A Must.

This 18 holes Jack Nicklaus design golf course was designed to enhance the unparallel scenic beauty on which is placed. Just Perfect.

Optional Fly-Fishing expeditions or horse riding days are available for the free time.
