

PREMIUM GOLF IN BUENOS AIRES AND BARILOCHE ITINERARY

DAY 1

Arrival in Buenos Aires and meeting at the airport by Patagonia Golf staff and transfer the hotel.

DAY 2

Breakfast and private city tour with an English speaking guide.

Buenos Aires is a charming city with a strong influence of most of the main European cities. Beautiful walks, avenues, parks, monumental buildings, cafes, museums and churches gathered in 26 districts, each with its own distinct personality, gives it a truly cosmopolitan air. The northern quarter resembles the most elegant areas of Paris, May Avenue and its innumerable cafes houses revives the flavour of Madrid's Gran Via, the shady Belgrano streets recall the distinguished Londoners suburb, Naples seem to be present in the noisy and coloured La Boca quarter...

In the afternoon, transfer to San Andrés GC.

Is the oldest golf club in Argentina. The course was built in 1892, at 1894 the first official golf match took place here. The club is named after The Royal & Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrew's. It is no coincidence that in time the neighbour and the railway station, created initially for club members to come by train, took the name of San Andrés.

It is a par 72 for Men and 73 for Ladies, with a maximum 6772 yards length. San Andres Golf Club hosted the "Abierto de la Republica" 21 times (more than any other club). Roberto De Vincenzo, the 1967 British Open Champion, won here twice, and is an honorary member.

DAY 3

Breakfast and transfer to Olivos GC.

It's considered the best golf course in Argentina, it is ranked 71st on the Golf Digest's "best golf courses outside US."

The course currently has 27 holes and it's considered one of the best in South America for its beauty, tight fairways and sloppy greens. Olivos Golf has been host of international tournaments such as the Masters -first in South America- the "Abierto de la Republica", the "copa los Andes", among others. It has also been played by the best European and American players.

This course has hosted the Golf World Cup on 2010.

Afternoon at leisure.

DAY 4

Breakfast and transfer to Pilar Golf

This course hosted the 2006 and 2011 "Abierto de la Republica" (Argentine Open)

Pilar is a Links golf course located in the north area of Buenos Aires. It has 27 holes with 5 different tees per hole to assure every golfer a "fair tee off" despite the handicap or driving distance. It is considered to have an american design and the clubhouse is one of the biggest and most luxurious in South America. The red course has the only Par 6 (665 yds.) in South America with 2 hazards that cross the fairway in order to force the golfers to be more strategic than long hitters."

Afternoon at leisure.

DAY 5

Breakfast and transfer to national airport. Flight to Bariloche.

Undoubtedly PATAGONIA suggests the most amazing latitudes of the globe. At the southernmost tips of continental Argentina, the Andean mountain Range shows a variety of natural beauties that will surprise tourist, among which glaciers, wonderful forest and lakes of glacier origin can be enjoyed

In this place the granite peaks and mystical forests of the Andes in western Patagonia cradle one of the world's most beautiful courses –They say you can hear the silence).

Arrival in the Argentine Patagonia area (Bariloche) and transfer to Hotel.

DAY 6

Breakfast and golf in the Llao Llao GC.

With a superb location, surrounded by deep-blue lakes, snow-covered mountains and natural forests, the golf course belongs to the Llao - Llao Hotel & Resort; it has asymmetric fairways, imposing green and bunkers perfectly integrated to the environment.

Llao-Llao design cross quite a few times the “Nahuel Huapi Lake” and the 18th hole is one of the two holes in argentina that are among the best 500 hundred In the world. It is a 180 par 3 in which you'll need to fly tee-to-green otherwise you will end up “snorkeling” on the “Nahuel Huapi” Lake.

DAY 7

Breakfast and golf in the amazing Arelauquen GC.

This amazing 18-hole course 6,693-yard and Par-72 golf course is located on the northwestern shore of Lake Gutiérrez. It is crossed by the Longochinoco Creek, which makes up a central valley in the shape of a horse-shoe opening towards the lake. Immersed in a setting where the air is pure, surrounded by mountains, lakes of crystal-clear waters, unique vegetation and the highest level infrastructure necessary for golfers.

The Arelauquen Refugio (mountain shelter) is situated on the summit of Cerro Otto, so you can enjoy our gastronomic delights whilst experiencing the deep silence of the forest all around. The breathtaking panoramic view of the Andean cordillera and lakes Nahuel Huapi, Gutiérrez and Moreno, plus the coziness of our restaurant set the scene for truly magical moments.

This amazing mountain top restaurant rests on a natural viewpoint at 1300m. The restaurant trip involves an unforgettable 4x4 adventure, unique in Patagonia

Full Fly-Fishing day at the Limay River

These waters offer many challenging characteristics from shallow riffles, fast runs, deep pools, undercut banks, isolated channels, vegetation mats, and deadfall structures. Test the challenge and join us for an angling trip you will never forget.

During these summer months, the weather is very moderate, the days are long, and the fish are plentiful... brown and rainbow trout are abundant throughout this time of year. Every avid fisherman, from novices to experts, will be challenged to perfect their "fly fishing" skills and to implement new techniques necessary for these special waters of Patagonia.

The season runs from November 15 through April 15.

Program includes: transportation - fishing guide- rental equipment and barbecue lunch at the riverside.
